

Department: - Pediatric & Preventive Dentistry

Name:- Dr. Seema Pathak

Qualification:-B.D.S, M.D.S.

Email ID:- seemadpathak@gmail.com

1)

Location

In Building:-Second floor ,Room
No.217

- 2) Scope Of Dept :- Deals with diagnosis, prevention and treatment of all aspects of dental diseases both in deciduous and permanent teeth including associated structures. It has wide scope which involves many disciplines of dentistry and medical specialty. Scope ranges from prenatal counseling of parents to all the dental treatments upto 13 years of age. Dental Care of the medically and mentally compromised patient. Treatment of children includes Pediatric Preventive Dentistry, Pediatric Prosthodontics , Pediatric minor oral surgery, Pediatric Endodontics , Pediatric Interceptive and preventive Orthodontics.
- 3) Activities :- THEORY CLASSES- The undergraduate students begin with lectures in the III year of BDS .Theory (65 lecture hours) III yr-20 and IV yr-45hrs.
CLINICAL TRAINING- Detailed case history and discussion, Oral prophylaxis, Restorative procedures, Extractions, Topical fluoride applications procedures are taught in their clinical postings.
Practical (170 hrs)) III yr-70 and IV yr-100hrs. Total- 235 hrs.
Seminar presentation- The students are required to present two seminars, one minor at the end of the III year BDS and a major seminar in the final year of BDS.
Community programmes- Students are also encouraged to participate in community programmes such as treatment camps and awareness programmes
Project work- Students are required to submit a project in their final year which is usually related to the development of a teaching aid or the development of an aid for behavior management

4) Patients Service :- The department is well equipped with all the latest infrastructure which helps in the course of diagnosis and treatment planning of a particular patient. The department is kids friendly and kept in par to the specifications given by the dental council of India. We also focuses on patients who are dependent on care takers for their day to day living and those with special health care needs or handicapped children who are identified from the community, brought to the department for necessary oral health care and medical treatment procedures.

5) Staff Details:-

Dr Chaitali Keshav Mirajkar (Assistant Professor)

Dr Aishwarya Shetty(Assistant Professor)

Dr Priyanka Awasare (Dental Surgeon).